Soldiers Bound for Island Forts.
A detachment of soldiers, comprising about a hundred men, passed through Willimantic Friday afternoon en route for Fort Wright and Fort Terry to fill out the complement of artillery stationed at those forts. The soldiers came from Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, Mo., and had been on the road since 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

New Postoffice Station Opened.
Friday the new postal substation in James D. Courtney's store at the corner of Main and Railroad streets, opened for business. F. D. Blah was the first person to patronize the new office, purchasing a stamp within a matter of minutes.

Friday morning Postoffice Inspector C. H. Pendleton and Postmaster C. H. Dimick called at the substation, and expressed themselves well pleased with the surroundings. In order that mailing of matter might be facilitated a large combination drop box was installed in the substation, and a short time a place will be found for it outside the store that will be handy for the public. A number called at the station during the day and availed themselves of the opportunity for a quicker service, especially business men along the street in the central part of the city.

1912 Dog Tags.
Town Clerk Frank P. Fenion has received his annual supply of dog tags for the year 1912. The design is a trifle different from that of recent years.

Last Call for Pickers.
A party of local men went fishing for pickers through the ice over Windham way on Thursday. Success attended the party's efforts, but the premier honors of a fisherman, if all accounts are true, go to Judge James A. Shea. A Wendell, a Tiesing, a Fenion or any of the numerous other of the town's famous fishermen, have nothing on "Jim" when it comes to catching a landing them. The judge needs neither bait, hook, line, nor any other device used by the ordinary picker. He went with his bare hands. The best catch of the whole lot was made by the judge in this manner Thursday.

City Getting Good.
There was no session of police court Friday morning. The month starts off with a clean slate.

Michael F. Sullivan, Champion.
Thursday evening the company pool championship was decided in the rooms of Montgomery house company on Jackson street. Before an audience comprising most of the members of the company Michael F. Sullivan defeated Alderman D. R. O'Connor by a score of 139 to 120. The contest was an interesting one to witness, as a great many difficult shots were made that gave the onlookers an opportunity to sit right up and take notice.

Lenten Hour, with Organ Recital.
The First Congregational church was open Friday afternoon from 4:30 until 5:30 o'clock, for recital, meditation and prayer. During the hour an organ recital was rendered by Mrs. C. H. Caswell, organist of the church. The innovation was a success as a large number called at the church and passed a profitable hour.

FAVOR JURORS.
These Drawn Friday Live Not Far from Putnam.
For the first time in several years the jurors drawn for service at the March term of the superior court are not representative of all of the towns in Windham county. Sterling, Scotland, and Putnam are the only towns represented in the list drawn Friday.

At the suggestion of Judge Bennett, who will preside during the March term, jurors were not selected from the county drawn by the local organization in order that they might not be obliged to make long, cold drives that are not too pleasant to ride over during the rough weather of late winter and early spring. All of the towns omitted from the list this time are distant from Putnam excepting Putnam.

THIRTY-THIRD YEAR.
F. E. Bitgood Has Had Long Business Career in Danielson.
F. E. Bitgood on Friday, March 1, entered upon the thirty-third year of his business career in Danielson, to which place he came to work for George Leavens on the first of March, 1880, and has since been identified with the dry goods trade in this town.

The subjects are to be selected by the teachers. The announcement is greeted with interest by the pupils, who have become very much interested in writing as the result of the attention they have received in the past.

FUNERAL.
Daniel Austin.
Funeral services for Daniel Austin were held Friday afternoon at A. F. Austin's residence. The services consisted of the reading of some of Mr. Austin's writings by W. D. Wood, one of his friends, and singing by Mrs. C. H. Otis and Miss Emma Burbank. Burial was in the family lot of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hiven at Brooklyn.

From 13 Degrees Below to 55 Degrees Above Zero.
The meteorological record for February as registered at Bitgood's shows that the maximum temperature for the month was 55 degrees, this being registered on the 23d, and that the minimum for the month was 13 degrees below zero, this Arctic reading being on the morning of the 11th. The greatest daily range was 47 degrees on the 7th.

The total of precipitation for the month was 2.16 inches. Of this amount the greatest fall was 1.44 inches on 24 hours was 1.35 inches on the 3d. Only one inch of snow fell during the 29 days, but the measurement on the 13th showed six inches, this remaining from January. During all of February there were only three days with .01 or more of precipitation.

The month furnished an unusual number of clear days, with 4 cloudy and 7 partly cloudy. Phenomena of the month included a thunderstorm, occurring on the 23d, and sleet storms, noted on the 26th and 27th.

A foot-note on the records mentions February 10 as having made a local record for a cold day, it having been one of the most disagreeable remembered heretofore.

BURIAL BY MOONLIGHT.
Funeral Party from Montreal Arrived Before Body, Which Just Missed Being Sent to Kentucky.
A funeral procession by moonlight, passed through the streets of Danielson, Friday night, conveying the body of Mrs. Marie Freddy, 61, from the railroad station at Westley to the cemetery, a line of carriages following the hearse and at the cemetery the relatives watched the burial with only the pale light of the moon.

Mrs. Freddy died in Montreal and the body and funeral party left that city Thursday night for Danielson. The relatives arrived here at 11 o'clock Friday morning and the body should have arrived at the same time, but was miscarried. When this was learned a telegram was sent to Worcester, where it was received just in time to prevent the shipment of the body to Danielson, Ky. The shipping directions on the box read to that place, it was later learned.

Mrs. Freddy was formerly a resident of Danielson, where she will be remembered as Mrs. Flower, her first husband having died about a score of years ago. L. R. Kennedy was the funeral director.

Whiskey and Pine for Cold.
Fine Formula for Old Time Remedy Cured Thousands Here Last Winter.
The increased use of whiskey for colds is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly.

From your drugist get two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Concentrated Pine Compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them into a half pint of good whiskey. Shake well and take one to two teaspoons after each meal and at bedtime. Smaller doses to children according to age. This treatment often knocks the worst cold or cough in a day. But be sure to get only the genuine (Globe) Concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle contains a seed tin screw-top cap. If your drugist does not have it in stock he will quickly get it. Don't experiment with cheap imitations. It is very plain. Local druggists say it has had a marvelous demand for the past six years.

PUTNAM

Short Calendar Business at Friday's Session of Superior Court—Louis Wolf Thrown from Wagon—New Municipal Building to Be Occupied April 1st.

Judge William L. Bennett presided at a short calendar session of the superior court held here Friday morning. Court opened at 10:30, with numerous attorneys present from various towns in Windham and New London counties.

The short calendar business was disposed of as follows: Continuance of one week in the cases of Emily M. Lathrop vs. the Danielson Wagon Company; Marshall J. Frink, Cons. vs. Caroline W. Tonnerson; Edgar Rhodes vs. William H. Stefan; Mary H. Baker vs. Nellie Gelinas; Abby F. Abbe et al. appeal from commissioners; M. Emma Kendall vs. Ella G. Clark et al.; the Williamsville Manufacturing company vs. the Killingly Manufacturing company; Ella Nora Young's appeal from probate; Stefan Bundeck et al. vs. Joseph Dvorak et al., and J. J. Young vs. J. E. Talbot.

In the case of Harriet A. Mathewson vs. James A. Nichols et al. a motion to reopen judgment, Judge Bennett heard the arguments made by Judge A. M. Mathewson of New Haven; judgment reserved. Attorney Donald O. Perkins of Norwich and Attorney F. J. Danahy of Putnam argued a demurrer in the case of Zofia Zwierczko vs. John Tuckie. In the case of Annie H. Chapman vs. the Nashawag Electric Power company an answer or other pleading was ordered in two weeks.

Criminal Cases Next Week.
Next week the attention of the court will be occupied with the consideration of criminal cases, but for the following week cases of a civil nature were assigned for trial by Judge Bennett as follows:
Tuesday, March 13—First case, Louis M. Magpie vs. the Connecticut company; second case, Samuel R. Ray vs. Sessions L. Adams, admr.; third case, Achshah Camp vs. W. P. Kelley, admr.
Wednesday, March 13—Edgar M. Wheaton vs. N. X. N. H. and H. R. R. company.

During the brief session of the court on Friday Charles H. Curtis of Willimantic was admitted as a member of the Windham county bar by Judge Bennett. Attorney Curtis, whose application for membership had previously been approved by the bar members at a meeting held earlier in the month, related to Judge Bennett that up to last year and for some time previous he had been practicing in Colorado. After he had taken the oath Attorney Curtis was extended congratulations by the other attorneys present.

Jurors Drawn.
The drawing of the jury for the March term of court was the last business of the day before adjournment, the following being the list of those from various towns in the county who were selected for the service, the drawing of names being by Clerk E. M. Warner and in the presence of Judge Bennett and Sheriff Sibley: Putnam, Florence E. Clark, Elbert C. Kinney, William L. Kennedy; Windham, Henry E. Anthony, James Johnson, William A. Buck, Brooklyn, Glenn F. Lewis, Frank W. Chapman; Eastford, George A. Keach, Ariel W. Green; Hampton, Charles W. Burnham, Frank W. Congdon; Killingly, Wesley Wilson, Clayton W. Wright, Edward McRoy; Plainfield, Henry K. Loring; Amasa L. Mathewson, John W. Capwell; Thompson, John H. Danahy; A. P. Ryan; Michael Kinney, Thaddeus A. Woodstock, John Aldrich, Arthur Morse. The jurors are to report for service on Wednesday next.

Continued Cases.
In addition to the list of criminal cases that have come up since the last term of court, the following continued cases are listed for consideration at the criminal session to be held on Tuesday of next week: State vs. James Murphy, non-support; state vs. Joseph Bunker, non-support; state vs. John J. Burns, breach of peace; state vs. Howard Holgerman, assault; state vs. Edward O'Connor, adultery; state vs. Abraham Rubens, breaking and entering; state vs. John Doyle, non-support.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.
Louis Wolf Thrown from Wagon and Knocked Senseless.
Louis Wolf, 25, a junk dealer doing business in the city, was severely injured Friday morning when a fine new horse that he was running away with him on Grove street. The accident happened about 10:30 a. m. Passengers on a south-bound electric car noticed that Wolf was having some difficulty in controlling the animal when they passed him. After the car passed the horse became more heavily frightened, finally bolting and racing madly, pursuing the car east along Grove street. The runaway gained rapidly, and fearing that he would smash into the car, the conductor stopped it just before turning into King street, this to give the horse a clear right of way on both sides of the track. The horse did not hit the car, but did slam the wagon up against an iron pole carrying the overhead work of the trolley line, and Wolf pitched headlong to the street. The injured man was knocked senseless. He was removed to the Day Kimball hospital, where the physicians found that he was suffering from injuries to his spine and from other hurts. The horse, which is such a beautiful animal as to attract special attention, was captured after it had made considerable of a run. The wagon was smashed.

A. M. E. Zion Anniversary.
The members of the A. M. E. Zion church of this city are preparing a special observance on March 24, the second anniversary of the establishing of the mission where they attend service here every Sunday. All plans for the event are not completed, but it has been decided that the day will be service morning, afternoon and evening, and that sermons will be delivered by visiting clergymen. Rev. J. R. Wallace of Cambridge, Mass., the pastor is in charge of the arrangements, which will be announced at the services to be held tomorrow (Sunday). Among the visiting clergymen who will be heard at the anniversary services are Rev. R. R. Ball of New Haven, who will probably preach at the evening service, and Rev. Sinclair Grinstead, pastor of the A. M. E. church at Willimantic.

Saw Hard of Ten Deer.
A passenger who climbs aboard one of the cars of the New London and Putnam road, says he saw ten deer on the road.

Chest Pains and Sprains

Sloan's Liniment is an excellent remedy for chest and throat affections. It quickly relieves congestion and inflammation. A few drops in water used as a gargle is antiseptic and healing.

Here's Proof
"I have used Sloan's Liniment for years and can testify to its wonderful efficiency. I have used it for sore throat, croup, lame back and rheumatism, and in every case it gave instant relief."

of the care of the Connecticut company on the local lines these days may be the nickel that he pays to ride on some living pictures that cost a dime to look at. Though this is not guaranteed. Friday, however, at New Thompson, a herd of ten deer trotted along in full view of a car, and the patrons of the road were delighted with the sight.

To Move April 1st.
Although offices in the municipal building are ready to be occupied, it is not probable that any of them will be moved much before the first of April. All the officials who are going to be located there are not ready to move, and as it would cost as much for heat and janitor service with one office occupied as for two, they are waiting until a group of officials get ready to move.

Arguments in Arnold's Case Postponed.
The final arguments that were to have been made Friday in the matter of Ernest M. Arnold's petition for discharge from bankruptcy were postponed for one week, when they will be heard at Willimantic.

Manhasset Mill Machinery Coming.
It was stated here Friday that new machinery for installation at the mill of the Manhasset company may be expected to arrive here in a few weeks. The work of laying new floors and making other improvements and repairs at the plant is well advanced.
